

Farber's Growing Presence in Calgary, Alberta

We are pleased to announce that Derek Church has joined B. Riley Farber as a Managing Director. He will be based in Calgary and lead our Corporate restructuring practice for Alberta.

With close to 15 years of professional services and restructuring experience, Derek's capabilities span across a wide range of industries, with his deepest expertise in the energy & resources sector—specifically oil and gas. Other industry experience includes, real estate (commercial, industrial, multi-family and hospitality), mining and resource extraction, logistics and transportation, manufacturing and automotive.

"In addition to our increased presence in Western Canada, adding Derek to the team will help us further serve the Alberta marketplace and strengthen our position in this critical region of the country," says Gary Lifman, Joint Managing Partner.

"I am thrilled to be joining B. Riley Farber to help expand the restructuring practice in Alberta. B. Riley Farber is a growing and dynamic organization, and I am looking forward to building on their rich 40-year history," Derek notes.

With offices in Toronto, across Ontario, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver, B. Riley Farber is positioned to advise businesses across Canada. Our global alliance extends our reach and provides opportunities in North America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and beyond, reflecting the increasingly global nature of business.
